

<http://montesquieu.ens-lyon.fr/spip.php?article3623>

Paris, 24 mai 2022, 15h30 - 14h15, Hugo Toudic : "From the Separation of Powers to the Federative Republic : The Federalist's Interpretation of The Spirit of the Laws"

Publication date: mercredi 14 mai 2022

- Actualités -

---

Copyright © Montesquieu - Tous droits réservés

---

Conference on Montesquieu & Federalism Campus Condorcet, Aubervilliers, EHESS, France

24 May 2022 (hybrid format)

The Federalism Conference is an international conference that seeks to explore on the one hand, normative and historical theories of federalism and, on the other hand, investigate federal practices based primarily on case studies from Asia.

Hugo Toudic (PhD candidate, Paris Sorbonne and University of Chicago)

"From the Separation of Powers to the Federative Republic : The Federalist's Interpretation of The Spirit of the Laws"

May 24th

Campus Condorcet, Centre des Colloques, Aubervilliers

3:30 PM - 4 : 15 PM CET

(online and in-person, in English)

Official website of the conference (full program, bios, directions) : Conference Federalism 2022 - Sciencesconf.org

Registration : Attendance is free, but registration is compulsory.

To register : https://federalism2022.sciencesconf...

Scientific committee : Cheryl Saunders (University of Melbourne), Daniel Weinstock (McGill University), Harihar Bhattacharyya (University of Burdwan), Indira Rajaraman (National Institute of Public Finance and Policy New Delhi), Kalypso Nicolaïdis (University of Oxford, European University Institute), Min Reuchamps (UCLouvain), Sudha Pai (Jawaharlal Nehru University), Rekha Saxena (University of Delhi), Parul Bhandari (Centre for Multilevel Federalism, Center for Social Sciences and Humanities-CSH)

Conference organized by : Laure Gillot-Assayag (PhD candidate, EHESS, CESPRA), Vishnu Tandon Kumari (PhD candidate, EHESS, CEIAS)

Conference webpage : Conference Federalism 2022 - Sciencesconf.org

We hope you can join us for this event.

The organizers

Laure Gillot-Assayag and Vishnu Tandon Kumari